

St. Charles County Attorney Attending MACDL Fall Conference

St. Charles County Attorney Wayne Schoeneberg will attend the Missouri Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers Fall Conference on Friday, October 22, 2010 at Harrah's Casino in Maryland Heights, MO. The day's events are sponsored by Missouri Lawyers Media, The Bar Plan and Semke Forensic.

The MACDL Fall Conference is a full day event that not only provides a forum for Missouri Defense attorneys to acquire knowledge regarding specific changes within our court system; it also serves as continuing education for litigation professionals. Topics covered at this year's MACDL Fall Conference include Depositions, Defending Juveniles, Legislative, Case Law and Jury Instruction Updates, Jury Instruction specific to DWI Cases, Victim and State Relations, Police Report Interpretation, Defendants Rights and Ethics relative to Computer Technology.

According to the Missouri Courts Webpage (www.courts.mo.gov), the Missouri Supreme Court continually updates and amends jury instructions for criminal cases, a major focus at this year's fall conference. "It is imperative that responsible litigation professionals continually refresh their understanding of court practices and procedures," said Wayne Schoeneberg. "This conference affords defense attorneys with the opportunity to ensure we have the most up-to-date comprehension of our court system."

Wayne Schoeneberg's office is located at 5500 Mexico Road, Ste 200, St. Peters, MO, 63376. Wayne has concentrated on DWI/DUI cases for the past 35 years as well as criminal defense, personal injury, and white-collar crimes.
